but not from life."*

Happy Parade

My name is Candace and I'm here because my family moved without me. I am such a good family dog...

I'm good with kids, cats & dogs.

I'm gentle and loving, and I hope you'll give me a chance.
